Marc Black Band, Friday, Oct. 5, Bearsville Theater, NY. Dedicated To Daniel Pearl

New York, NY. (Top40 Charts/ Suma Records) - The Marc Black Band will participate in the worldwide, Daniel Pearl World Music Days event on Friday, October 5th, 8 PM, at the Bearsville Theater. This will be the fourth year running that Marc has dedicated a show to Daniel Pearl, last year's taking place in San Francisco.

Daniel Pearl World Music Days started in 2002 to honors the birthday of Wall Street Journal reporter Daniel Pearl, an accomplished musician who was murdered by terrorists in Pakistan in 2002. This is an awareness raising event, not a fundraiser. Musicians worldwide participate in this event...from Herbie Hancock to Elton John. "Danny was a talented musician and principled journalist who respected all cultures," said Daniel's father Judea Pearl, president of The Daniel Pearl Foundation. "World Music Days is part of his legacy to raise awareness of our common humanity. "

This event will be a classic Woodstock dance with the "A List" Marc Black Band including Warren Bernhardt, Betty MacDonald, Mike Esposito, Eric Parker and Don Davis. With this group, you know the dancing will be wild and go well into the night.

"Please join us in using the universal language of music to celebrate the life of Daniel, diminish hatred, and to remember to reach out in friendship."
