The Los Angeles Philharmonic and Los Angeles County join people around the globe for the Sixth Annual Daniel Pearl World Music Days.

An international network of concerts that use the universal language of music to affirm ideals of tolerance, friendship, and our shared humanity, World Music Days was inspired by the life and work of journalist and musician Daniel Pearl, who would have celebrated his birthday on October 10th.

Through this afternoon's performance, we attest to the power of music to transcend the differences that set us apart, reaffirming our conviction that humanity will triumph and harmony will prevail.
